American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free frm foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmunship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a propriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splended edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscsiptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Baltimore Hospital,

24th August, 1818.

THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive; the whole building being now 360 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.

The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatick asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable: the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiappa, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:

Doctors Colin Mackenzie, James Smyth } Attending Physicians.
Dr. Horatio Gates Jameson, Attending Surg.
Doctors George Brown, John Coulter, John Campbell White, Solomon Birkhead, John Cromwell, Peter Chatard, Ashton Alexander, John Owen, William Donaldson } Consulting Physicians.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 6 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Rober Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a seaton put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia; combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

FOR THE GAZETTE.

In looking at a picture of Washington, which hangs over the mantle-piece in the drawing-room at Mount Vernon, I found on the back of it the following handsome tribute to the virtues of the patriot, which, I was informed, was from the pen of a young gentleman in Philadelphia, who presented the picture to the present proprietor of that seat, the Hon. Bushrod Washington. Americans will read it with interest, for it pourtrays the character of their father.

A FOREIGNER.

WASHINGTON

The defender of his country—the founder of
The friend of man. [liberty—
History and tradition are explored in vain
For a parallel to his character.
In the annals of modern greatness
He stands alone;
And the noblest names of antiquity
Lose their luster in his presence.
Born the benefactor of mankind,
He united all the qualities necessary
To an illustrious career:
Nature made him great;
He made himself virtuous.
Called by his country to the defence of her liberties,
He triumphantly vindicated the right of humanity,
And on the pillars of national independence
Laid the foundation of a great republic.
Twice invested with the supreme magistracy
By the unanimous voice of a free people,
He surpassed in the cabinet
The glories of the field;
And voluntarily resigning the sceptre of the sword,
Retired to the shades of private life.—
A spectacle as new and as sublime,
Was contemplated with the profoundest admiration,
And the name of Washington,
Adding new lustre to humanity,
Resounded to the remotest regions of the earth.—
Magnanimous in youth,
Glorious through life,
Great in death:—
His highest ambition the happiness of mankind;
His noblest victory the conquest of himself.
Bequeathing to posterity the inheritance of his fame,
And building his monument in the hearts of his countrymen,
He lived the ornament of the 18th century—
He died regretted by a mourning world.

AGRICULTURE.

We understand, from good authority, that a negro slave, the property of Mr. John Carter, of Fauquier County, Virginia, has made a valuable improvement in agriculture, by the invention of a machine, which, at the same time that it cuts the corn, prepares the ground for a crop of wheat, rye, or any other grain. It is said, that with one man and a horse, this machine will perform the work of eight men in the usual mode.

This is another instance, amongst the many that already exist, to prove the falsity of the theory that will not allow the same capacity to a black as to a white man.—Will it be credited that an unlettered negro slave, by the mere force of his genius, can do more to benefit agriculture (that most useful of all arts) than all the learning and wealth of the agricultural societies, with the most enlightened men of the nation at their head? Such, however, is the fact. [Washington Gazette.

An extensive Cave has recently been discovered in the state of Indiana. The Indiana Centinel, mentions, that it is situated on a hill of about 400 feet elevation, and the mouth of the cave about half way between the base and the summit of the hill. The cavern varies in capacity from 30 feet high and 20 wide, to quite small—with a roof in some places arched, in others flat, and in others angular, like the roof of a house. It has been explored more than a mile and a half, and is found to contain Epsom Salts of a superior quality, and inexhaustible quantity, together with a vast quantity of Saltpetre earth, Alum, Gypsum, &c. The property is owned by Mr. Benj. Adams, and is situated a short distance N. W. of Big Blue River. The rocks in the cave are principally lime-stone. Though this cavern by no means equals that of Warren county, in Kentucky, in point of dimensions, yet it appears to surpass it in useful products. [N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

From the National Intelligencer, Sept. 19.

We have seen some conjectures in the newspapers respecting the delivery of the Spanish posts, in Florida, which it has been announced are to be restored to the Spanish government, that have led us to some inquiry into the subject.

The two posts, we are induced to believe, will be surrendered under variant circumstances.

The post of St. Marks will not be surrendered, but to a force competent to hold it. It is a military post, remote from any population, surrounded by hoardes of desperate Indians and negroes—it is the only barrier against their ravages and incursions. To evacuate it on the mere demand of any Spanish Agent deputed to receive, or to a force incompetent to hold it, would be to evacuate it to the Indians—for we have the authority of the late Spanish Commander of it, for saying, that the Indians controlled him, and not he them. Self-preservation is the first dictate of nature—and there is nothing in the law of nations, most rigorously construed, which requires a nation to prostrate any part of its population at the mercy of an infuriated and savage enemy. We have daily accounts that the Seminole Indians remaining unsubdued are embodied in force—this check withdrawn, and they might sweep our borders. On the appearance of a force adequate to garrison the post, it will be promptly given up.

With respect to Pensacola, that post stands on a different footing. There are not fifty warriors west of the Appalachicola, and the population of the frontier is sufficient to keep them in awe. The population of Pensacola alone is abundantly competent to preserve it from falling into the hands of the Indians. That post, therefore, will be surrendered, without condition, to any agent of Spain duly authorized to receive it.

It is thus seen, that the United States do not desire to hold the Spanish posts—one of which is surrendered without condition, and the other without any condition but that it shall not be surrendered to a force nominally Spanish, under a controul actually Indian. In a word, it is to Spain, and not to the Seminoles, that both the posts are to be surrendered.

RESPECTING BUENOS AYRES.

Not seeing any thing in the Norfolk and Baltimore papers, of the important News we yesterday noticed as having reached this country, by private letters from Buenos Ayres, we have thought it proper to be more particular in stating what we know of it.

The Portuguese got possession of Colonia on the 1st of May—whether by conquest or treachery is not known, but by the latter, it is believed—in which place, at the date of our information, (the latter end of June) there were a thousand men garrisoned. About the same time, the Portuguese General Currow took Purificacion and Paysander, with 3500 men. A corps of Cavalry crossed the Uruguay, and after plundering the Arrayo de la China repassed the river. The Portuguese afterwards abandoned Purificacion, and took a position between the Uruguay and Paysander. The uncertainty of all news received at Buenos Ayres was such, that it was not known how things actually stood, at the date of our advices. The contest, however, was considered very unequal, Artigas being thus cut off from the resources afforded on the sea coast, and being, withal, deprived of any aid from Buenos Ayres.

The government of Buenos Ayres, it is said, permitted the Portuguese to send their vessels of war up the river, to co-operate with their land forces, which amount to about ten thousand men. The success of the Portuguese had had the usual effect of making them confident—and they openly threaten to take possession of the Island of Martin Garcia, which commands the entrance to the Uruguay and some of the entrances to the Parana, and which is garrisoned by the troops of Buenos Ayres. If they succeed in this attempt, it requires no great forecast to predict that their next attempt will be on the western shore.

Of the safety of the provinces of Buenos Ayres, of their ability to maintain their INDEPENDENCE, if united, there can be no doubt—there is no saying to what the violence of their internal divisions may not bring them; though it is believed they have little to apprehend from any force the Portuguese can bring against them. Particulars of the Hurricane off Bermuda on the 30th August last, from the log-book of the brig Junius, capt. George Dunton, from St. Salvadore, which arrived at this port yesterday.

The day commenced with brisk breezes and cloudy weather. At 5, P. M. the wind increasing, took in all the light sails and square mainsail, reefed the foretopsail, and single reefed the mainsail. At 6, P. M. balance reefed the trysail, close reefed the foretopsail and took in the jib; calculating to be abreast of Bermuda by sun-set, sent a man aloft to look out for land, when, after the third attempt, (the weather clearing up a little) the land appeared in view. At half past 6, P. M. the Island of Bermuda bore N. N. W. distant about 8 or 10 miles, hauled off to the S. and W. under reefed foresails, double and close reefed topsails. The gale still increasing, kept away before the sea and wind to the westward, under a reefed foresail and close reefed maintopsail.—At 10, P. M. the sea getting so high, and the gale more violent, took in the close reefed maintopsail, and scudded under the reefed foresail, with two men at the helm, and constant attention to the helmsman to scud the vessel securely. The sea became tremendous, making as high as the mast head, and a breach constantly over the decks, doing occasional damage. At 1, A. M. the wind shifted to the S. S. W. the land then under our lee, a violent hurricane succeeded. Finding it impossible to scud any longer without imminent danger, ordered men aloft to take in the reefed foresail, for the purpose of heaving too, but it was utterly impossible for all hands to furl it, and in a few moments it blew to pieces. We afterwards succeeded and hove too under a balance reefed try-sail. At 2 A. M. the hurricane was at its height, carried away the main-top-mast, top-gallant-mast and top, with all the yards, sails and rigging attached thereto. The try-sail next encountered its fury, and was soon split in pieces. The night was shrouded in total darkness; but glimpses of light were sometimes reflected from the tremendous sprays of the sea, occasioned by flashes of lightning. The ocean would then appear illumined by variegated rainbows. The particles of the sprays rushing violently on us, resembled hail-stones. Such was the impetuosity of the wind, that all sense of hearing was lost, unless standing close to each other. The sea now ran awfully high, breaking over on each side with unremitted violence; when finding it impossible to keep her head to the sea, added to the vessel laying on her beam ends shortly after in the trough of it, ordered the fore-top-mast to be cut away, which, with the jib-boom, top gallant-mast, and all the yards, sails and rigging, went by the board. The long boat stove in, and the forecastle scuttle flew overboard. The vessel was now considerably relieved from her perilous situation. Two men constantly employed at the pumps, the vessel laboring severely, and the sea partially rushing in the forecastle, and through the companion into the cabin, which caused some time to elapse, ere she could be kept free. The horrors of the storm lasted until 5 A. M.; it then abated, and day-break appearing, enabled all hands to clear the wreck, which was finally accomplished by 7, A. M. The men, after 12 hours constant fatigue, were nearly exhausted and allowed to take a short repose. At 10 A. M. all hands called to set a temporary fore-yard, (which was formerly a main-yard, and was the only one saved) on which we bent an old fore-top-sail The wind and sea now gradually lessened.

GEORGE DUNTON, Master.

The editors of the New-York Gazette received the following from a commercial friend.

"BUENOS AYRES, June 6.—I have the pleasure to inform you that a great reduction in the duties of importation has just taken place here, amounting on an average to about 50 per cent, of the last tariff. Linens and Cottons, which paid from one to 2½ rs. vara, now pay from ¼ to ½. Silks, which paid from 2 to 8 rs vara, now pay from 1½ to 5. Cloth supf. paid 20 rs. and now pays 16; common paid 6, and now pays 3½ rs. vara. Glassware, which paid 5½ now pays 2 rs. a dozen. Iron instead of 8 rs a 99 lb now pays 5 rs. Steel instead of 24, now 15 rs a 99 lb. Cordage instead of 40, 28 rs a 99 lb. Tar instead of 8, 5 rs a 99 lb.—Rosin and Pitch instead of 10, 6 rs a 99 lb. Ardent spirits paid 648, now pays 480 rs a pipe. Wine which paid 616, now pays 340 rs a pipe. Fish instead of 48, now pays 30 rs 99 lb. Sugar instead of 48, 26 rs 89 lb. It is proper to observe however, that instead of ½ in paper which was hitherto taken in payment for duties, now only 1-3 will be admitted. This paper which is current at per cent. discount, was an advantage to the importer of about ¼ the duties, but will now give him only about 1-6. On wines, spirits and groceries, only about 1-6 will be taken in paper.

Very respectfully I am, &c."

LATEST FROM CHILI.

A mercantile friend has communicated the two following letters.

Extract of a letter from Chili, dated May 23.

"I send you a copy of a letter from capt. Turner, first lieutenant of the Lautaro, which will give you the particulars of that ship's first essay. Notwithstanding the confusion on board the Lautaro, had she grappled the Esmeralda, or continued alongside, she could not have escaped.

"May 30.—This morning arrived the U. S. ship Ontario, capt. Biddle, 28 days from Lima. She had a passage to Lima of 9 days, and remained 9 days there. Capt. Biddle and Judge Prevost were treated with much respect by the Viceroy, but with difficulty he was made to believe the news of the battle on the plains of Maipo. A minister is sent in the Ontario, Don Felix Blanco, adjunct of the Director of the Philippine Company, to treat respecting the exchange of prisoners. The Americans in prison in Lima, 7 in number, were released, and came in the Ontario. The Spanish frigate Vergansa arrived at Callao before the Ontario sailed, and the Spanish commodore assured the Viceroy, that during his blockade of Valparaiso, not a ship had entered the port; yet the following are the arrivals since the 19th: Prussian brig Clotilda, Montevideo; British ship Perseverance, Rio Janeiro; British ship Cumberland, London; Chilian corvette Coquimbo, Coquimbo; British brig Theodosia, do.; British ship Intrepid, London. The brig Columbus, of New-York, arrived in 49 days from Buenos Ayres."

(COPY)—Ship Lautaro, off Valparaiso, April 30, 1818.

SIR—A painful task devolves on me, as commanding officer of the Chili ship Lautaro, to inform you of the death of her late brave and much lamented commander Geo. O'Brien, while combatting with the enemies of Chili, on board the Spanish frigate Esmeralda.

After clearing the bay of Valparaiso on Sunday the 25th, steered to the southward until 4 o'clock the following morning, when we got sight of the enemy, beat to quarters and manœuvered occasionally to keep her in sight until day light. At 6 A. M, bore down upon the enemy under British colours, at the same time the brig Peruela hove in sight, a few miles astern, and the Esmeralda hove too. At 7, hailed her and demanded what ship? Answer, the Esmeralda. Struck the English and hoisted Patriotic Chili Flag, upon which she fired her larboard broadside, which was returned by our starboard bow guns, closed upon her, and boarded on her larboard quarter. Only about 25 boarders headed by our gallant commander (agreeably to his wish) could get on board, when the ships separated. The Spanish flag being struck, sent a boat with 18 men to assist the first boarders and keep possession of the ship. Observed the brig making off, backed from the ship to bring her too; after firing several guns at her, she struck her colours. Perceiving there were not so many men to board the Esmeralda as I thought, and the boat which had been dispatched dropping astern, I made sail after the ship again. Owing to the short time at sea, proper disipline could not established, men hardly knew their quarters, one half of the crew not understanding the language of the other, and a great many being sea sick and totally unfit for sea service, instead of rendering the least assistance only stood in the way, and caused confusion, so that it was impossible to work the ship, to lay her along side of the enemy as I wished, and on closing the second time the bowsprit could only be brought over the poop of the Esmeralda, the surviving men having lost their leader in the death of the brave O'Brien, and having expended their ammunition, I got them on board. Intending to fire a broadside before boarding a second time, for that purpose kept a constant and raking fire with our bow guns, which must have killed a great many of her men, as we had knocked her three aftermost ports, on the larboard side, completely into one—made her stern a perfect wreck, and set her upper cabin on fire. During this time, finding that the brig had again hoisted her colors and was making for our boat, and not wishing to sacrifice so many fine fellows, I backed the topsails until the boat came up. I then made all sail after the enemy, keeping up a constant fire with our bow chasers until the enemy's superior sailing enabled her to get out of the range of our shot. We, notwithstanding, continued the chase with all possible sail, until, finding we had no chance of coming up, we shortened sail and lay too, to repair damages. I cannot help here observing the cowardly manner in which the ship and the brig ran away, and am only sorry that our ship was so inferior in sailing. At 5, P. M. fell in with and captured the brig San Miguel, bound for Chiloa to Lima, from Talcoahauno, having on board 40 passengers, among whom were Dr. Rafel Beltram and D. Pedro Nicholas Chuoetea, lately merchants of Santiago, and D. Matias Ara, lieut. Colonel and-de-camp to General Osoro. They bring information from Talcahauno, which the Governor of Valparaiso will more fully communicate to you. I am, &c,

J. A TURNER, first officer.

A CURIOUS "LOVE MATTER."

A tall and masculine woman, who gave her name "Judith Macgrath," was brought in custody before the Magistrate at Guildhall, on Thursday, and being placed at the bar, the following whimsical conversation took place:

Magistrate—Who complains of this woman?—A little fat, smartly dressed man, whose cheeks, seamed with dark brown stripes, made it evident he had lately been in a desperate affray, skipped lightly into the witnesses' box, and very tritely replied, "I do, of course."

Magistrate—Why of course, Sir; pray, who are you?

Prosecutor—Me, Sir, I am Mister Nightingale.

Magistrate—And what are you, Mister Nightingale? What business are you?

Prosecutor—An hair dresser, of course.

Magistrate—(smiling)—And you charge the prisoner with an assault?

Prosecutor—An assault, of course.

Magistrate—Why do you add, of course; how am I to know all that happened between you?

Prosecutor—(stroking his face)—It's plain enough, I think.

Magistrate—Why true, you bear some marks of violence certainly. Pray, how did it happen?

Prosecutor—With her nails, of course.

Magistrate I don't care whether it was with her nails or not; I want to know why she assaulted you?

Prosecutor—Oh, a love matter, of course; what do woman assault men for?

Here the Magistrate lost all patience, whilst the persons in the office could scarcely suppress their laughter. Mister Nightingale, however, nothing moved, either by the anger of the Magistrate, or the tittering of the by-standers, stood with his mouth half open, ready for his next reply. At length, the Magistrate said, "Is there no person here who will undertake to tell this gentleman's tale for him?" When another dapper-spark took the place of the prosecutor, and announced himself as "Mister Nightingale's own brother."

Magistrate—Well, Sir, and now I hope we shall be able to understand this business. What do you know of this affair?

Witness—Why, Sir, I knows her to be a very infamous character.

Magistrate—Let her be what she may, she appears to have had to deal with a pair of wise ones. How do you know her to be an infamous character?

Witness—Why, Sir, of course she can't be a very good one, when she has lived with my brother these eight years! [Laughter, in which every body joined, except the two Mr. Nightingales.]

Magistrate—(rather angrily)—Pray, Sir, can you give a direct answer to one simple question?

Witness—I'll try my best, Sir.

Magistrate—Do so. Did this woman, the prisoner, live with your brother as his wife, or——

Witness—(interrupting)—As his concubine, Sir, of course.

Magistrate—Well, then, gentlemen, as this appears to be a matter of course altogether, I shall of course discharge the prisoner. And she was discharged of course. [London paper.

Alex'a. Common Council.

SEPTEMBER 14, 1818.

Ordered, That the taxes due from John Tutton and Mary Rexter for the present year, be remitted.

Mr. Vowell, from the committee for superintending the finishing of the new Market-House, made a report, That the committee had agreed to rent to the Levy Court for the county of Alexandria, the large room adjoining the library room over the new Market-House, as an office for the clerk of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia, for the county of Alexandria, upon the terms set forth in an agreement, bearing date the 12th day of September, 1818, which is prepared to be executed by the Common Council. The Common Council, after considering the said agreement, do hereby ratify what the said committee have done, and order that the President of the Common Council, and the Mayor, do sign and execute, in due form of law, the said agreement. And also, that they had rented the small room to the south of the one rented to the Levy Court to Edmund I Lee, at the rent of seventy-five dollars for one year from the time he takes possession of the same, with privilege of holding the said room at the same rent for four years longer, which latter agreement is also confirmed by the Common Council.

The petition of Thomas Brocchus and others on the subject of Pitt-street, was read and referred to Messrs. Adam and McGuire.

The petition of Joseph Boiseau, was read and referred to Mr. Hipkins.

Ordered, That the fine imposed upon Samuel Howard for permitting his dog to follow him to the Market place, be remitted, it appearing to the Common Council that he is unable to pay the same.

Ordered unanimously, That the certificates of William Wedderburn and Bryan Hampson, respecting the deportment and language of Geo. Coryell, sup. int. police, while in the discharge of his official duties, towards Mordecai Miller, be referred to Messrs Rose and Lee, with power to enquire into the conduct of the said George Coryell as to his manner in discharging the duties of his office, and to take testimony and report it to the Common Council as soon as practicable.

The committee to whom was referred the memorial of Joseph Boiseau, made a report recommending the suspension of the collection of taxes due from him, until the further order of Council, which was adopted.

Ordered, That the street commissioner do furnish the widow of the late John Mandeville with seventy loads of dirt, to aid in filling up a part of her property, in consequence of the heavy expense incurred by her in underpinning her building.

The act to provide for the protection of property between candle light and ten o'clock, was read a first time and laid on the table.

The act for fitting up the room at present occupied by the clerk of the Circuit Court for a Mayor's office—also,

An act to amend an act, entitled an act concerning the Chalybeate Spring at the intersection of Pitt and Montgomery streets, were severally read a first time and laid on the table.

FROM NEW PROVIDENCE.

By the arrival this morning of the schr Sarah, Petty, ten days from New-Providence, we have received the Royal Bahama Gazette of the 2d inst. By which we learn, that, on the 1st, the Court of Admiralty gave a decision in the case of the American sloop Amelia, Bunker, master.

The Amelia, it seems, sailed in June last from New-Orleans for St. Domingo, with orders to call off the port of Nassau for instructions. Soon after she left the Balize, she sprang her mast—and as the wind would not permit her to return, she proceeded on her voyage and entered the port of Nassau for repairs. She was immediately seized by an officer of the customs and prosecuted for an infraction of the Navigation Laws.

After a full hearing of parties, the Court restored both vessel and cargo, but decreed, that, as there was probable cause of siezure, each party should pay his own cost.

It is stated in one of our papers, that a row boat, schooner rigged, with about 20 men armed with knives and pistols, had been for some days in the Berry Island passage. She had boarded the sloop Sisters and schooner Lavinia from New-Orleans, but had not yet committed any violence.

To Millers.

I WILL sell or lease my Mill-race and Mill-seat, situate in Prince George's county, Maryland, about 2½ miles from the Alexandria ferry. Said mill-race extends ¼ of a mile through a neighboring plantation, where I have the right of taking the water at any convenient place, and 24 feet breadth of ground in fee simple.—It was dug several years ago, and is now in want of repair in some places—but little expense will suffice to put it in order.—There is from the head-water to the tail-race 17½ feet fall; and an eligible scite for a mill in the neighborhood of a sufficiency of timber to erect it.—To a person who would build a good mill on it, and oblige himself to keep it in complete order for a certain number of years, I should feel inclined to give the said property for that many years without ground rent: then to revert to me at a fair valuation of the improvements. 20 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at Selden's farm, near Alexandria, on the 20th inst. a Negro Boy, named LELAND, belonging to Dr. Selden, about 18 or 19 years of age, dark complexion, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, well made, and is apt to laugh when spoken to. He had on an oznaburgh shirt and trowsers, half worn, a country cloth round-about, very much worn, and wool hat. It is probable he has gone towards Baltimore. I will give ten dollars if taken in the District, or the above reward if out of the same, and reasonable charges if brought home.

WM. LANPHIER

INTENDS opening an Evening School on the 15th inst. at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of teaching the rudiments of the French language. Applicants can leave their names at Doctor STABLER's shop.

The following certificate is subjoined for their satisfaction:

TRANSLATION.

Having had the pleasure of a daily intercourse with Mr. Lanphier for several months past, we the undersigned certify, that from the profound knowledge he possesses of the French language, no person is more capable than he of teaching its rudiments and different idioms, (which constitute a part of it) and indeed the most correct pronunciation. We also have had an opportunity of conversing with several of the scholars of the same gentleman, who, without ever having been in France, speak good French.

Stop the Swindler.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.—He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair: he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 16 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villany.

Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLITHA LAWS.

Notice.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Honorable Court of Charles County as a Court of Equity, I shall expose to public sale at Port-Tobacco, Charles county, Maryland, on Wednesday the 7th day of October next, all the real estate of which General John Mitchell died seized, lying in Durham parish in said county, consisting of two tracts of land adjoining each other, called Hollyspring Resurveyed and Meek's Park, containing about 730 acres. This estate is situated contiguous to that of Colonel John Tayloe's, near Maryland Point, and within two miles of the river Potomac, is considered one of the most healthy in that neighborhood, lies level, and the soil (a part of which is already strong), is thought to be susceptible of speedy improvement by the use of clover and plaister of paris. On this estate is a very considerable body of wood and timber, which if converted into money would probably pay the purchase money.

The improvements are a two story dwelling with two rooms and a passage on each floor, and a cellar under the whole, kitchen, Negro quarters, barn, and corn house, and an orchard of some of the choicest fruits.—A more particular description of it is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumable that those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. It will be sold either entire or in parcels for the accommodation of purchasers.—The purchaser or purchasers will be required to enter into bond, with approved security for the payment of the purchase money in one, two and three years, with interest, payable annually from the day of sale; and on the ratification of the sale by the Court, and the payment of the purchase money, and not before, a deed or deeds in due form will be made, conveying all the estate, right, title, interest and claim, to the premises that the said John Mitchell, deceased, held in the same, which title is indisputable.

Public Sale.

UNDER the authority of a deed of trust from James D. Patterson to me, I shall at 11 o'clock, on Saturday, the 5th day of September next, upon the premises, proceed to sell at public auction for cash, or upon such credit as may then be agreed on, a lot of ground, with the buildings thereon erected, situate on the west side of West-street, and north side of King-st. in the town of Alexandria, and described in the said deed as follows: beginning at a point where the north line of King-street intersects the west line of West-street, and extending westwardly with the line of King-street 19 feet; thence north and parallel with King-street 100 feet to a 10 feet alley; thence east and parallel to King-street 19 feet to West-street; thence south with West-street 100 feet to the beginning—subject to a ground rent of 57 dollars, payable on the 15th day of October, in each and every year forever.

J. D. SIMMS, Trustee.

☞The sale of the above property is postponed till Thursday the 24th inst. September 5

Land for Sale.

I WILL sell from 150 to 300 acres of land, part of the farm on which I live.—On said land there is a log house with two rooms on a floor, a meat house, with several other small buildings, an excellent apple orchard, peaches, pears, quinces, damsons, &c. DANIEL DULANY.

August 24

Lexington for Sale.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale. About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and bl'k oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose; together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The other improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, ice-house, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an unintercepted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams abovementioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters. When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaption to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac. It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shewn in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Allison or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

For Sale,

A TRACT OF LAND in the county of Fairfax, between the Little River Turnpike Road and that from Leesburg to Georgetown, called SELBY, containing from 5 to 600 acres, situated in the neighborhood of Alexandria, Georgetown, and city of Washington. The land is in good order, with sufficient buildings for the purposes of farming, well watered, wooded, and adapted to plaster. As it is presumed that persons disposed to purchase will view the premises, further description is unnecessary.

Terms of sale liberal, and will be made known on application to John A. and Bushrod C. Washington, near Charlestown, Jefferson county, Virginia, or

NOBLET HERBERT,

July 18 sw Alexandria, D. C.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia

UNDER the authority of a decree from the Equity Court of Prince George's county, the subscriber will on Wednesday the 23d day of September next, offer at public sale, at the house of Isidore Hardy, in Piscataway, a most valuable property, the Estate of George R. Leiper,

Esq. deceased, so well known by the name of MONTPELIER—about 2 miles from Piscataway, 9 miles from Alexandria, and 16 from Washington city.

This farm, which contains rather more than 600 acres, is truly valuable. The soil is fertile and highly susceptible of improvement by the use of clover and plaster. The buildings are good and commodious, and the scite of the Mansion, in beauty of perspective and salubrity of air, is excelled by few on Potomac river. To be enabled to appreciate fully the elegance of the situation and all the advantages which result to the possessor of this valuable estate, it is only necessary that it should be viewed, which may be done at every necessary information obtained, by application to the subscriber, or Mr. Aquilla Baden, the present manager of the farm.

The terms of sale are that the purchaser shall pay one-third in ready money, and the residue in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and the payment of the whole purchase money with the interest thereon due, and not before, the trustee will execute to the purchaser a deed in the terms of the decree. The purchaser on complying with the terms of sale, will have the liberty of seeding a crop of winter grain.

THOMAS MUNDELL, Trustee.

Oakland, near Piscataway, August 11 } cpt23S

The subscriber will offer at public sale, on the same day and place above mentioned, 125 acres of land (lying nearly square) adjoining the above farm. It has been enclosed five years, without being cultivated; has 8 or 10 acres well set in timothy, and upwards of 30 in good timber and wood of different kinds. The improvements are a logged quarter and good barn. A part of the land has been well cowpenned for the five years. Terms will be made known on the day of sale

BILL IN CHANCERY.

Robert Perry versus
James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Frances Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

Charles County Court,

March Term, 1818.

ON application to Charles county court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Jno. Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

PROPOSALS,

By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker,

TO PUBLISH

A Splendid Edition of

Washington's Farewell Address,

To the People of the United States.

THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, wooed Victory till he won her: who covetted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free frm foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmunship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.
